Why Do Muslims Fast

Ramadan is the 9th month on the Islamic Lunar Calendar and is the month in which the Holy Quran was sent down as a guide for mankind through Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him). The “Night of Power” (or Lailatul Qadr) is also celebrated during the month of Ramadan and is the holiest night of the holiest month in the calendar

1. Pillar of Islam

Islam is divided into 5 pillars. The 5 pillars of Islam are mandatory acts of worship for every Muslim. The first pillar is the ‘shahadah’, the statement every Muslim should profess, “There is no God but Allah and Muhammad is the messenger of Allah”. The second pillar is the five daily obligatory prayers. The third is the act of charity (or Zakat). The fourth pillar of Islam is fasting during days on which they are compulsory. There are many situations where fasting becomes compulsory in Islam, one of which is fasting during the month of Ramadan. The fifth and final pillar of Islam is the holy pilgrimage to Mecca.

2. Spiritual Healing

During the holy month of Ramadan, Muslims are encouraged to practice patience and avoid getting upset or angry. The anger may lead to hurting others, whether verbally or physically, which may nullify the fast for that day. Doing so, one must pay back the fast after the month of Ramadan.

3. Gratitude

The month of Ramadan is also where Muslims give thanks through prayer for whatever they have achieved and received throughout the year. During the month of Ramadan, Muslims also tend to get more appreciative of their lives especially during the breaking of the fast at dusk. Every Muslim family around the world break their fasts differently. There may be families who can afford a great feast while some may not have a proper meal

4. Rebuilding and Renewing Ties with Loved Ones

Ramadan also allows families to get together for the breaking of fast as advised by Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him). As Muslims, we often take this opportunity to rebuild and renew ties with our loved ones and close friends by spending more time with each other.

5. Focus and Resisting Temptations

In today’s modern society, Muslims living as a minority in several countries may have to go through a rather common struggle, temptations. Focus then comes into play to stray away from these unavoidable distractions and temptations. Reading the Quran and performing acts of worship during fasting would allow us to focus on our fast and shun away the temptations.

6. Empathy

As Muslims perform their fast during Ramadan, they must spare a thought or two for those who don’t enjoy the same privilege. As Muslims, we’re advised to help those in need and those who are less fortunate, even more so during the month of Ramadan.

7. Detox

Detox during Ramadan is to abstain from bad habits which may harm a Muslim spiritually and literally. Here’s an example, Muslim smokers must abstain from smoking during their fast, which may be a starting point for them to kick their habit and carry on beyond Ramadan.

8. Health

Fitness enthusiasts would agree that fasting is beneficial for the digestive system and aids in muscle recovery and body purification, ridding the body of toxins. This is provided we don’t overeat during sahur (pre-dawn meal) and iftar (break fast meal)

A REMINDER

Why are you doing this journal thingy for 30 days? Is it really for Allah? This is the question that needs to be asked before we do anything. IF it's not for Allah, then not only will it be a waste of time and effort, but we may actually get further away from Allah by doing it for other than His sake. I need not go around telling people that I'm doing this journal, nor should I care if they find out. Humans don't matter when it comes to my heart. It's Allah that matters: is what I am doing pleasing to Him alone or not?

رَبَّنَا تَقَبَّلْ مِنَّا إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ |البقرة:127|

Our Lord! Accept (this service) from us: For Thou art the All-Hearing, the All-knowing |2:127|

HADITH

"Do not rebel against your Lord; establish 5 daily prayers; fast in the Month of Ramadhan, give the alms of your property; obey your superiors. (Thus) you will be admitted to the Paradise of your Lord." [Tirmidhi, Jumiah, 80]

ROLE MODELS...

Rasool Allah, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam

Trillions of human souls walked this planet, living and dying. They were just shepherds and business men, unlettered, in the desert. His father wasn't there to support him, nor was his mother. Time could easily have forgotten them, like it forgot trillions of others, without even the slightest mention. None of this would have happened if not for one special night in a cave.

He was the greatest creation of Allah to walk this planet. He spent his life inviting human souls to turn with their heart back to Allah. His name continues to be mentioned in the heavens and earth. No messenger of God will have more followers than him on the day of Repayment. All because of his focus on his mission to purify himself and to guide others to purify themselves.

When it comes to the materialistic world, one should look to those who have less than them in order to be thankful to Allah for what he has given us. However, when it comes to that which is with Allah, one MUST look to those who were higher so that they can strive to attain it. As a sage said, "Always look to the stars! For you may never reach their lofty status, but in the darkness of the ocean, those stars will guide your way home!"

Our Lord! Make of us Muslims, bowing to Thy (Will), and of our progeny a people Muslim, bowing to Thy (will); and show us our place for the celebration of (due) rites; and turn unto us (in Mercy); for Thou art the Oft-Returning, Most Merciful [2:128]

HADITH

"The condition of the believer is worthy of envy and admiration, because every state they are in is a cause of benefit. Such a quality is unique to the believer: When they are delighted, they praise (Allah) and this is a benefit; when they suffer harm, they show patience and this is also a benefit." [Muslim, Dhuhd (Observance of Devotions), 64; Darim, Riqaq, 61]

ROLE MODELS...

Khadijah bint Khowaylid / Umm AlMu'mineen

In Makkah, she was one of the wealthiest in business, sending out caravans and hiring men to manage the sales. Twice married, many had asked for her hand in marriage. She had all the qualities one would hope for in a spouse. She would turn down the requests, until the day she met a man whose nobility and trustworthiness was known to all. She asked to marry him. He accepted. She became the wife of Rasul Allah, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam. On the night he met Jibreel, alayhis salam, she was there wrapping him in blankets and comforting him. She was the first woman to accept Islam. One day, as Angel Jibreel sat with Allah's Messenger, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, she came knocking and Jibreel told him to give her the blessed news of a palace in paradise

No matter how big our hopes are, we cannot achieve those dreams if we are tired and sapped of energy most of the time. Lack of energy comes from not following the sunnah of Allah’s Messenger, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, in regards to his eating and sleeping and exercise habits. One of the keys to maintaining spiritual and physical health is through fasting! Enjoy.

HADITH

“The one who helps widows and poor people is like a warrior fighting for Allah’s Cause or like a person who fasts during the day and prays all the night.” [Bukhari, Nafaqah (Alimony), 1; Muslim, Dhuhd (Observance of Devotions), 41; Tirmidhi, Birr (Piety), 4; Nasa’ee, Zaqah (Poor-due), 78]

ROLE MODELS...

Abu Bakr / Khaleefat Rasul Allah

Successful, wealthy, and of high character. Before the revelation began, Abu Bakr was always the close friend of Allah’s Messenger, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam. Many successful and wealthy arabs lived at his time, but Abu Bakr, radi Allahu 'anhu, was destined to become something much more.

The first man to accept Islam. When he heard of the message, he did not ask a single question. He replied by bearing witness that there is no god but Allah, and that Muhammad was his messenger. He was with Rasul Allah, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, in the cave during the Hijra. And upon the Prophets’ death, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, he fought to bring the entire Ummah back to their deen. May Allah be pleased with him.

If perfection is your goal, then you have the lowest standards! Why the lowest? Because perfection cannot be achieved by any human being. Perfection belongs to Allah alone! Thus, if this is your standard, you will never achieve it, and then you will just give up. Instead, focus on what you are doing right, and keep growing that plant. And when, not if, when you do something wrong, something displeasing to Allah, bounce back immediately in Tawbah to Allah. Quickly come back and make things better. Those kind of people, those who come back to Allah the fastest, are the most blessed children of Adam.

HADITH

“Faith is composed of 70 odd branches; of which the highest is belief in ‘La Ilaha Illallah’ [There is no God but Allah] and the lowest is the removal of a hindrance from the road, and the sense of modesty is an important branch of Faith.” [Bukhari, Iman (Faith), 3; Muslim, Iman (Faith), 57-58]

A young girl growing up in Makkah. Her mother was Khadijah, radi Allahu 'anha, and her father was Allah’s chosen one. At the age of 5 her father came home to tell her that he had become a Messenger of Allah. By his side, although she was still a child, she followed his instruction and defended him again and again. Her father, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, married her to Ali, radi Allahu 'anhu, who was only a few years older than her. Together, the young couple gave birth to AlHasan, and then later, AlHusain, the grandsons of Allah’s Messenger, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam. Her walk and speech reminded you of her fathers, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam. Rasul Allah, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, said about her that she is the sayyidah of all the women of paradise.

If one gets in their car and has no destination in mind, they will never arrive at the 'nothing' in their mind. You will never arrive if you don't know where you are going or take actions to get there. Paradise is something that must be hoped for day and night. Those who enter Jannah are those who entered it 10,000 times before they died. Because they hoped and prayed for it so much, they lived their lives striving towards it. Envision yourself entering the highest level of Jannah! And now ... work for it!

HADITH

"Avoid the 7 great destructive sins." The Muslims enquired, "O Messenger of Allah! What are they?" He said, "To join others in worship along with Allah (shirk), to practice sorcery (magic), to kill the life which Allah has forbidden except for a just cause(according to Islamic law) (murder), to eat up Ribah (usury) (interest), to eat up an orphan's wealth (usurp), to give back to the enemy and fleeing from the battlefield at the time of fighting (cowardice), and to accuse chaste women, who has never thought of anything touching her chastity and are good believers (false accusation)." [Bukhari, Wasayah, 23; Tibb (Medicine), 48; Muslim, Iman (Faith), 144]

ROLE MODELS...

Umar ibn AlKhattab / Ameer ul Mu'mineen

He was one of the most harshest against the Muslims. Not only would he torture his servants, but he would volunteer to inflict punishment on others who had accepted the message of Islam. Because of the way he and others treated the Muslims, they had to leave their homes and family and possessions so that they could worship Allah in peace. Who would have known?

The Prophet, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, made dua for his guidance and Allah accepted. The day he became Muslim it was a conquest for the believers. After the death of Abu Bakr, radi Allahu 'anhu, he became the Khaleefah. His rule was blessed with mercy to humanity. Many of us are Muslim today because of the countries conquered under his rule. If you speak about Umer, you speak about justice. He was promised paradise.

It is said that a person will do more to avoid pain than achieve pleasure. Let's say you don't 'feel' like working for Jannah. Well then, let's introduce ourselves to Hellfire. There are only two destinations. Everything in life is a gift of Allah, it's not 'ours'. It's a test to see if we will truly be thankful to Allah, by doing what he commanded and staying away from what He forbade. All these commandments are meant to raise us to be humans in the greatest mold. Anything less is subhuman. Paradise or Hellfire? Your choice.

We tend to not disobey Allah 'until' we think that no one is watching us. If only we knew. The angels of Allah are watching us all the time, writing everything that we do. Our very body parts that we use to obey or disobey are watching us and will testify on the day of Repayment. The earth that we walk on will bear witness to whatever we did on it's back. There is a book that records everything, small or large, that we do; if you read it you would be amazed! And above all, Allah is looking down on us. You're not alone.

Everyone in makkah absolutely adored him. He was successful in business, with the most upright of character. When he became Muslim, there was no one to abuse him because of his noble status in society. But it was his own uncle that took it upon himself to inflict the punishment. Fleeing with his wife, he left his family, wealth and possessions in order to worship Allah in peace in Habasha. Allah's Messenger, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, married him to his daughter. And when she passed away, he married her to his other daughter. With the wealth that Allah granted him, he purchased the well of Roma and prepared the army of alUsrah. In both cases, he was promised paradise in return. One cannot read about sadaqah anywhere without reading about the example of Uthman.

A REMINDER

Whatever good or bad happens in life, it happens by the will of Allah. We cannot just get up and be guided, Allah ta'ala has to grant us the tawfeeq (favor) for that guidance. When we attempt to come closer to Allah, the doors of guidance are opened and come closer, faster, to us. But we must never forget that it is Allah that allows this. And if this heart we are seeking is in the hands of Allah, then let's take a moment right now and pray that Allah accepts this effort and grants us that nearness to Him, our Creator.

|8: آل عمران|

Our Lord! (they say), Let not our hearts deviate now after Thou hast guided us, but grant us mercy from Thine own Presence; for Thou art the Grantor of bounties without measure [3:8]

HADITH

Another admonition man has learned from the prophets is the following maxim: "If you have no modesty, then do whatever you wish." [Bukhari, anbiya' (Prophets), 54; Aboo Dawood, adab (Good Manners), 6]

ROLE MODELS...

Ali ibn Abi Talib / Ameer ul-Mu'mineen

A very boy in Makkah. The cousin of Allah's Messenger, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam. Many children lived their lives in play and amusement, but not Ali. He was very close to Allah's Messenger, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, and never did bow his head to the idols.

Before age 10, Ali, radi Allahu 'anhu, heard the news that Allah had chosen a Prophet from his family. He was the first amongst the youth to accept Islam. He grew to marry the daughter of Allah's Messenger, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, Fatima, radi Allahu 'anha. Later in his life he became the Khaleefah of the Muslimeen. Promised paradise, his leadership was an example of pure courage.

Do you know what happens to a car that has tires that aren't balanced? The car crashes. Or at the very least, it cannot go anywhere very fast. The Arabic word for balance is 'Adl, also translated as justice! The purpose of this journal is not to take one away from their other duties. Family, business, fitness, etc. In reality, when someone truly understands what Ibadah means, they will realize that in everything noble that one does, there worship of Allah is found. Think Ibadah as something bigger. And enjoy.

Our Lord! Thou art He that will gather mankind Together against a day about which there is no doubt; for Allah never fails in His promise. [3:9]

HADITH

"Your smiling in the face of your (Muslim) brother is charity; enjoining the good and forbidding the evil is charity; your guiding a man that has lost his way is charity; and your removing of stones, thorns, and bones from people's paths is charity for you." [Tirmidhi, Birr (Piety), 36]

ROLE MODELS...

Khalid ibn al-Walid - Sayf Allah (Sword of Allah)

It was the son of AlWaleed, one of the strictest tyrants against the Muslims. When the drums of war against the Muslims began to beat, Khalid was the leader of the disbelieving army. In the battle of Uhud, he saw the strategic mistakes some of the Muslims made and he capitalized on it. Over 70 companions of the prophet were killed Shaheed that day. Hamzah, the uncle of the Prophet, being one of them. radi Allahu 'anhu Allahu 'anhum.

He accepted Islam and became a force for Allah, the sword of Allah. Never did he lose a battle, not before, nor after his Islam. When Abu Bakr, radi Allahu 'anhu, sent him out in the apostate wars and then the subsequent battles in Iraq, Khalid, radi Allahu 'anhu, became a legend of what true Muslim leadership is all about. After all the battles he fought in, he passed away on his bed. He advised men to always be courageous for truly one never knows where they shall die.

A REMINDER

If anything on earth reaches a state of excellence, it is the promise of Allah that He will bring it back down to earth. Nothing on earth remains in the pinnacle state. And because of that, whenever we get something, when it's our day to 'boast', we should instead humble ourselves to Allah. Imagine what life would be like if we loved each other, thought everyone else was better than us in some way, and truly sincerely sought to treat people good because we truly sincerely hoped for Allah's pardon. Be humble. It feels so good.

HADITH

"A Muslim is a brother of another Muslim, so he should not oppress him, nor should he hand him over to an oppressor. Whoever has fulfilled the needs of his brother, Allah will fulfil his needs; whoever has brought his (Muslim) brother out of a discomfort, Allah will bring him out of the discomforts of the Day of Resurrection, and whoever has screened a Muslim, Allah will screen him (of his faults) on the Day of Resurrection." [Bukhari, Mazalim (Injustices), 3; Muslim, Birr (Piety), 58]

ROLE MODELS...

Amr ibn Al'Aas

As a chief of Makkah, he stood in the face of anything that the Messenger of Allah, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, called to. When the Muslims fled to Habasha, fleeing because of the punishment Quraish inflicted upon them, Amr ibn Al'Aas set out with a delegation to Habasha to bring them back. Allah guides whomever he wishes. Amr ibn Al'Aas accepted Islam and became one of the guiding light leaders under the guidance of the Khulafaa'. Sent to North Africa, with seemingly small armies, Amr ibn Al'Aas conquered country after country. If you are from North Africa, then this is one of the key men you must thank Allah for. Only Allah knows who shall be guided.

A REMINDER

If you lose hope, you've already lost. The test of life is too hard for us to enter it wishy-washy. Be confident, strong, and determined in seeking Allah's love, in seeking His paradise. This is what HE commands of us. It is not Allah that wishes to see us thrown in to Hellfire. Shaytaan is the one that wishes that end. Allah ta'ala wants for us to be forgiven, wants for us be protected from Hellfire, wants for us to enter His paradise. The question now is: what do we want? And what are we doing about it?

Our Lord! We believe in what Thou hast revealed, and we follow the Messenger. Then write us down among those who bear witness [3:53]

HADITH

The Prophet of Allah, sallallahu alayhee wa alehee wasalam said: "Religion is sincerity." We said: "To whom, O the Prophet of Allah?" He said: "To Allah, His Book, His Messenger, to the leaders of the Muslims and their common folk." [Muslim, Iman (Faith), 95]

ROLE MODELS...

Bilal ibn Abi Rabah / The Mu'adhdhin of the Prophet's Masjid

An Abyssinian slave in Makkah. It was a society that paid no moral heed to the slave class. They were bought and sold and bought again. They were not considered to be of higher intellect and had no wealth of their own. And rarely were they able to marry. Bilal was one of them. After accepting Islam, he was tortured in a way that few people could comprehend how he survived. He only called on one for assistance: Allah. Abu Bakr, radi Allahu 'anhu, freed him and he later migrated to Madinah. In Madinah, he became the Mu'adhdhin of Allah's Messenger, calling people to prayer five times a day. The Prophet once heard in a dream the footsteps of Bilal in Paradise.

Sa'd ibn Mu'aadh / Our Sayyid

He was from the aristocrats of Madinah. A chief, a leader, a noble. When he proposed to a family, they married him. If he requested something, the Madinan community followed. If he dislike something else, everyone held their hands from it. It is power like this that normally blinds a person. But not in this case.

When Mu'adh, radi Allahu 'anhu, came to Madinah to call people to Islam, Sa'd stood in his way. After listening to the blessed da'wah of Mu'adh, Sa'd himself became Muslim and that night not every home in Madinah turned off their candles with the Shahadah in their hearts. He fought alongside the Prophet, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, and was killed Shaheed in Madinah.

The no.1 reason that people enter hellfire? Open your mouth and stick out your tongue! Our tongues are the no.1 reason. How could such a simple piece of flesh be so destructive? It's the backbiting, the slander, the lies, the mocking of nations, the name calling, and on and on, that we indulge our tongues in. Let's watch our tongues today, and every day, and cultivate it to be a beautiful flower, only sweetness coming from it. And if there is nothing sweet to be said, then ... silence.

HADITH

On the authority of Adiy Ibn Hatim (may Allah be pleased with him), who said: "Facilitate things to people (concerning religious matters), and do not make it hard for them and give them good tidings and do not make them run away (from Islam)." [Bukhari, Ilm (Knowledge), 12; Muslim, Jihad (Holy Struggle), 6]

ROLE MODELS...

Maryam / AsSiddeeqah

Her mother was praying for a boy. When she gave birth to a girl, she did not lose hope. She placed her trust in Allah and prayed that Allah would protect her daughter Maryam and her offspring from the accursed Shaytaan. She grew up as a shining light of modesty and worship of Allah. And it was her that Allah chose to carry in her womb his Messenger: Eesa, alayhis salam.

Sent an angel, she was given the glad tidings of a son even though no man had touched her. This was the will of Allah. Her son Eesa, alayhis salam, spoke in the crib declaring his mission as a Messenger of Allah. Although many women lived at her time, it was Maryam that became one of the most God-fearing women to walk this earth. May the peace of Allah be upon her and her son.

One often hears of what Khalid ibn AlWaleed did in the battle of Uhud. But we do not often hear that it was Ikrimah who equally shared in that turnaround. The son of he who was known as the Fir’own of this Ummah, Ikrimah fought long and hard against the Muslims, many of whom died at his hands. During the conquest of Makkah, the command was given that he was to be executed.

After fleeing Makkah, his wife interceded for him, he came to Allah’s Messenger as a Muhajir and a Mujahid. He swore he would spend twice as much in Islam as he did against it, and that he would fight twice as hard. He kept his promise. In the battle of Yarmook, he was one of the top Muslim generals to carry the Muslims to victory. He was killed Shaheed. Only Allah knows who will be guided.

He was the king of Abyssinia. As a Christian, he and his bishops considered Eesa ibn Maryam to be the son of God. Subhanah. The power he possessed would normally blind a person, as it did the king of Persia when he received the invitation of Islam, as well as the king of the Romans. But An-Najaashee was sincere in his belief in Allah.

When the Muslims migrated to Abyssinia, a delegation from Makkah was sent out to hunt them and bring them back. They stood before An-Najaashee and pleaded their case. Upon hearing what they had to say about Easa ibn Maryam, An-Najaashee began to weep. He gave protection to all the Muslims. Do you ever get frustrated or stressed? Is it because, perhaps, you are focused on yourself at the moment? Probably. Focusing on oneself = stinginess = frustration = ingratitude to Allah. Instead of focusing on ourselves today, why don't we focus on others? How is their health? How long have 'they' been waiting in line? Maybe their perspective is something valid that I haven't considered before? Whatever it is, stress comes from focusing on ourselves. Happiness, on the other hand, comes from upright righteous character.

Allah blessed Fir'own with so much. Beauty, unfathomable wealth, and power. With all of that he enslaved the children of Israel, murdered their children, and spread corruption in the land. To him, Allah sent His Messenger Musa, alayhis salam. And after all that he had done, there was always a chance for him to come back to Allah. There was always a chance for the mercy to encompass him. Fir'own disbelieved Musa and disobeyed Allah. He gathered his court, and shouted to them all, "I am your Lord Most High!" Subhanah. The punishment of Musa and Bani Israel continued, and the punishment of Allah rained down. Finally Fir'own allowed them to leave, but with the intention to slaughter every man, woman and child amongst them. It was there at the sea that Allah snatched Fir'own and punished him for everything.

Whenever there is a feeling of abundance, it tends to bring out the best in people to share. When one feels like there isn't enough of something, it tends to bring out the miser within. Ask yourself today, hasn't Allah given me total abundance? What can I share today? When the issue of 'sharing' comes up, just like when we were in grade school, when we were told to share, the fear of there not being enough would cause us to hold tightly. Not so with Sadaqah. The more we give, the more we shall receive. That's Allah's promise!

Aasiyah / An example for all believers

Most mother's dream of marrying their daughter to someone rich and famous. Aasiyah was given to Fir'own as a wife. She bore no children, and so on the day a little baby boy washed up on her palace shore, she beseeched Fir'own to spare his life. He submitted.

When the message of Musa, alayhis salam, was revealed she believed in Allah in the palace of a man who claimed that he was 'the' Lord, most High. For what she believed in, she was tortured until death. She had no one to turn to, except Allah! And so she prayed, "My Lord, build a home for me beside you in Paradise. And save me from Fir'own and his deeds, and save me from the tyrants."

TOMORROW I WILL...

A REMINDER

Just as Allah is the most Merciful, He is also the most severe in punishment. This is not something that people like to focus on, but in order for a person to be saved, the hope in Allah’s Mercy must go hand and hand with massive fear of Allah’s punishment. How many nations before us were destroyed by that which their own hands reaped? How many arrogant tyrants had their thrones taken away from them because of their decision to turn their backs on Allah? It’s not a question of, “Can Allah do it?” He already has.

HADITH

“Allah does not look at your appearance or your possessions; but He looks at your heart and your deeds.” [Muslim, Birr (Piety), 33; Ibn Majah, Dhuhd (Observance of Devotions) 9; Ahmad bin Hanbal, 2/285, 539]

ROLE MODELS...

Suhayb Ar-Roomi

His father was governed one of the townships for the Persians. One frightful day, his tribe was attacked by the Romans. Most were killed. The rest sold into slavery. Suhayb was amongst the slaves. Sold in Constantinople, he intimately witnessed the injustice and corruption of the disbelieving society. Later in life her found his way to Makkah were he became very wealthy and successful. He was one of the first people to believe in the Messenger of Allah, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam. When permission to migrate to Madinah was given, Suhayb was followed by a band from Quraish. “You came to us with nothing and we made you rich, do you think we will let you take this wealth from us?” they said. He replied, “If I tell you where the wealth is, will you allow me to continue my Hijrah?” He gave them the location and entered Madinah with nothing. He got the better of the deal!

TOMORROW I WILL...

A REMINDER

Our lives boil down to how we spend our days, hours, and minutes. If we spend most of our time sleeping, eating, or entertaining ourselves, then a life without fulfillment is the only result. The key is to focus on the important things in life, those things that other people may not consider so 'urgent'. Almost everything in the heart wheel is important, but unfortunately for many people, it's not an urgent matter. Pump up your heart by avoiding distractions, and focus on what is truly important.

HADITH

"Three prayers are answered without doubt: A prayer by a person suffering injustice, and a prayer by a traveller, and a prayer by a father for his children." [Ibn Majah, Dua (Prayer), 11]

ROLE MODELS...

Adiyy ibn Haatim

He was Christian and in his own words no one hated Allah's Messenger, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, more than him. It is Allah who guides the hearts. He was an Arab chief, son of the famous Haatim At-Taa'i. His sister was captured in a battle and then subsequently freed by Allah's Messenger, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam. She met up with her brother and insisted that he join the Muslims. He set out to meet with Allah's Messenger, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam. He saw the weak of society speaking to him and he witnessed the simplicity of his life, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam. He knew this was no king. The Prophet promised him that a time would come when the treasures of Persia would belong to the Muslims. Adiyy became Muslim, and he lived the conquest of Persia.

There are steps one must take in order to be successful in this life and the next. One of the fundamental flaws in self-help books is that there is nothing in it that is Fard. Sure, the authors 'encourage' actions, but there is no Lord to direct those souls. Not so in our Deen. When Allah commands us to pray five times a day, anchoring our hours to Him, making it Fard upon us for our own good, He is training us to live the 'good' life (and life hereafter). Allah is pure and only accepts those people who have purified themselves.

HADITH

"It is incumbent upon you to be always truthful, for truthfulness guides to absolute piety and piety leads to Paradise. A man who always tells the truth and pursues the truth is written with Allah as a truthful one. Refrain from lying, for lying guides to sinfulness and sinfulness leads to Hellfire. During the Hijrah, she was honored for her assistance of Allah's Messenger and her father. She was married to AzZubayr, radi Allahu 'anhu, the Hawaree of Allah's Messenger, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam. Almost everywhere one goes these days, there is some sort of attack on the souls chastity. It might be a lewd magazine at the market, or not averting one's gaze in public or it might be an internet banner ad. One must be extra vigilant to protect their heart. Cupid is not a chubby angel that strikes the hearts of men. That is the Shaytaan. Our glances are direct connections to our heart. Avert the glance, and you've just supported a tree of Eman in your heart. Indulge the glance, and you are speared by Iblees. Our choice.

He was from the tribe of Muzaynah. The Arabs had begun to enter into Islam and An-No'man was distressed why his tribe was delaying joining the Messenger of Allah, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam. So, having made up his mind, he and his 10 brothers and 400 horsemen from his tribe all traveled together to Madinah to pledge allegiance to the Messenger of Allah, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam.

After the death of the Prophet, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, An- No'man became one of the main Muslim generals. In the battles against Persia, when Umer, radi Allahu 'anhu, heard of the battle swelling in Nahawand, he chose An-No'man to lead the Muslims. That day, An-No'man said, “O Allah grant nobility to your Deen and assist your slaves. The bigger the mission, the more one will have to prepare and train for it. So if the biggest mission of our lives is to worship Allah, then how do we train? How did Allah’s Messenger, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, train when Angel Jibreel came to him? The answer: with prayers in the night, Qiyam ul-Layl. There are few things on earth more valuable than to get up during the night, make wudu while others are sleeping, raise your hands, and begin worshipping your Creator. Thank you, O Allah, for this gift.

The purpose of Islam is to raise the human being to become the most noblest creation of Allah. Nobility comes from Taqwa and upright character. Allah’s messenger, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, lived the Qur’an every single day through his actions. How much of the character taught in the Quran do we know? And how much of that are we living on a daily and hourly basis? The beautiful thing is that there is so much happiness that awaits in taking this path. Enjoy!

He was from the tribe of Dows. When At-Tofayl, radi Allahu 'anhu, became Muslim and returned to his tribe of Dows to inform them, Abdul-shams was one of the first to answer the call and travel with At-Tofayl to visit the Prophet, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam. He was single, without a wife or children, and his financial situation was destitute. Add to that, his own mother furiously cursed the Messenger of Allah. The Prophet, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, changed his name to AburRahman (Abu Hurayrah) and later prayed for his mother. That same day she became Muslim. He began narrating the sayings of Allah’s Messenger, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, so much so that he became the foremost narrator of hadith. When one thinks 'charity', what automatically comes to the mind is giving money. While money is a fundamental part of charity, it is not the end all. Charity is a much larger term that includes visiting the sick, speaking kind words to people, smiling in people's face, and so much more. For every limb and joint of our body, every day, we must thank Allah. How do we thank Allah? Through the charity of just being outstanding with Allah's creation. And in doing so, we would be winning Allah's love.

The expensive perfumes that he wore would linger in the air after he passed. In the midst of his youth and financial ability, Rasul Allah, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, announced that He was a prophet sent from Allah.

Infuriated, when his mother heard the news that he became Muslim, she stripped him of everything. Physical torture. After many years of this, he was sent to Yathrib as the "ambassador" of the Prophet, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam. Most of the Ansar became Muslim at his hands. There are two weapons, if you use them, no one and nothing can harm your emotions. They are: thankfulness and patience. Patience, true patience, is that time, as soon as the calamity befalls, that someone holds back, and praises Allah. Immediately they are blessed with a calm that carries them through the calamity, a gift from Allah. Not only is that moment blessed, but that which comes after it becomes even more blessed because of the patience. Imagine life as a truly patient servant of Allah.

How do you take a good thing and make it better? Answer: by being thankful to Allah for it. Thankfulness is the secret ingredient to happiness on earth and in the hereafter. If you want to enjoy it all, be thankful. Thankfulness isn't only an action of the tongue. Thankfulness is done in action as well: by following the commandments of Allah, desiring nearness to Him, and keeping far away from that which Allah forbade. Kufr, in its root meaning, means ungratefulness. It's the root of disbelief.

He was tall and strikingly handsome. There were few who had the kind of respect and influence in Makkah like him. He was one of the first people to accept the message of Islam at the hands of Abu Bakr. He lived through all the torture and trials of life in Makkah. In Badr, his own father followed him everywhere to kill him. Yet it was Abu Ubaydah who killed his father. The greatest test.

During Uhud, it was Abu Ubaydah who lost his teeth in his attempt to extract the metal that pierced the face of Allah's Messenger, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam. At the time of the Khulafa, he was the Ameer of the Muslim army in AsShaam. During the plague of Omwas, he was martyred. When people attempt to listen to music or watch TV, they are actually searching for one thing: peace of heart. The music makes them sad, the TV scares and manipulates them. True peace of heart is found in a beautiful book sitting there on your shelf: the Qur'an. In it is the stories of perished nations and prophecy of what is to come in the future. In it is hope for paradise and warning from hellfire. In it is contemplation of the heavens and earth, and all in between. You are looking for peace, right? It's right here.

When the Messenger of Allah, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, migrated to Madinah, Salman was ready. After seeing the truthfulness, he became Muslim. The Muslims assisted him in freeing him from slavery. Have you ever noticed how much humans love competition. It's in our nature to compete. If there is nothing to compete in, we make up stuff just for the enjoyment. But, in most competitions, the journey to the prize is often an empty ride. Why not compete for the hereafter? Why not compete for the highest levels of Jannah, just like the Sahabah did? Search today for people who seem to be awesome worshippers of Allah, make friends with them, and then gleefully work on beating them to Allah!

رَبَّنَا آتِنَا مِن لَّدُنكَ رَحْمَةً وَهَيِّئْ لَنَا مِنْ أَمْرِنَا رَشَدًا |الكهف: 10|

Our Lord! Bestow on us Mercy from Thyself, and dispose of our affair for us in the right way! |18:10|

HADITH

“None of you will enter Paradise unless you have faith, and none of you truly have faith unless you love each other.” [Muslim, Iman (Faith), 93; Tirmidhi, Sifat Al-Qiyamah (Attributes of Doomsday) 56]

ROLE MODELS...

Talha ibn Ubaydullah

Abu Bakr was his good friend. When he heard of the message of Islam, he trusted Abu Bakr's choice and became Muslim himself. His mother used to cry for assistance in punishing Talha. He lived through all the trials that the Muslims endured in Makkah.

In the battle of Uhud, because of the way he defended the Prophet, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, he was later known as the "living martyr". He was nominated at the time of Umer to be the next Khalifah. After the murder of Uthman, Talha felt so grieved that he said, "In what happened in the affair of Uthman, I did not think Allah would forgive me unless my blood was spilled in the path of avenging his blood." He was martyred in this path.

A REMINDER

When some think of forgiveness, they think that it must come 'after' sin. Not so. The best time, actually, to ask for forgiveness is after a noble deed. Perhaps there were shortcomings in the deed. Perhaps there was an intention that was not purely for Allah. Seal the deed by beseeching Allah's forgiveness. This is what Allah's Messenger, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, did on the day he conquered Makkah. How far You are, O Allah, from imperfection; we did not worship You in a way befitting of your Majesty. Forgive us.

رَبَّنَا إِنَّنَا نَخَافُ أَنْ يَفْرُطَ عَلَيْنَا أَوْ أَنْ يَطْغَىٰ | طه: 45|

Our Lord! We fear lest he hasten with insolence against us, or lest he transgress all bounds |20: 45|

HADITH

"Making a motion of his index and middle fingers our Prophet said, 'Whoever supports an orphan from among his own or any other family will be as close to me in Heaven as these fingers are close to each other.'" [Bukhari, Talaq (Divorce), 25; Adab (Good Manners), 24; Muslim, Dhuhd (Observance of Devotions), 42]

ROLE MODELS...

AbdurRahman ibn 'Owf

He was promised Jannah during his life. He became Muslim on 2 days after Abu Bakr, radi Allahu 'anhum. It was the Prophet, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, who changed his name to AbdurRahman. He was tortured physically in Makkah and, because of that, was amongst the companions who fled to Abyssinia to worship Allah in peace.

He returned in time to migrate with the Prophet, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, to Madinah. There he was offered half his Ansari brothers wealth, but he chose instead to build his own. His business flourished immensely. He fought in Badr and Uhud, matching both physical and financial. In the battle of Tabuk, he gave everything he owned After the Prophets death, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam, he supported the wives of the Prophet financially.

A REMINDER

Just when you thought it was over, it's just begun. Worship of Allah does not end after 30 days. The Lord of Ramadan is the Lord of all months. Worship of Allah only ends at death. What awaits after that is the trial: is Allah pleased with me so that I may rejoice like no human has ever rejoiced? Or should I regret like no human has regretted, perhaps Allah is displeased with me? Perhaps my intentions weren't for Him alone? It is with constant fear and hope, fear and hope, that we'll find our way back to Allah! May Allah accept your noble work this month! You did it! Celebrate! This is what life is all about.

رَبَّنَا آمِنًا فَاغْفِرْ لَنَا وَإِرْحَمْنَا وَأَنْتَ خَيْرُ الرَّاحِمِينَ |المؤمنون: 109|

Our Lord! We believe; then do Thou forgive us, and have mercy upon us: For Thou art the Best of those who show mercy [23: 109]

HADITH

"Anybody who believes in Allah and the Last Day should not harm his neighbour, and anybody who believes in Allah and the Last Day should entertain his guest generously and anybody who believes in Allah and the Last Day should talk what is good or keep quiet." [Bukhari, Adab (Manners), 31, 85; Muslim, Iman (Faith), 74, 75]

ROLE MODELS...

Sa'd ibn Abi Waqqas

He was a handsome and strong young man growing up in Makkah. Early twenties. From a rich and aristocrat family, he would spend his time practicing archery. Because of his strength, people used to call him the young lion. He found no worth to the idol worshipping that surrounded him, so on the day that Abu Bakr told him about the message of Islam, he became Muslim.

He was known as the uncle of the Prophet, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam. His mother challenged his Islam and—as much as he loved her—he chose Islam over her, even if it meant she would take her life. He participated in Badr; And in Uhud he was one of the few that stood defending the Prophet, sal Allahu alayhi wa sallam. In the battle of AlQadisiyyah, he led the Muslim army to one of the most decisive victories over the 150k Persian army.
